The Cloud

I bring fresh showers for the thirsting flowers, From the seas and the streams

I bear light shade for the leaves when laid In their noonday dreams,

From my wings are shaken the dews that waken The sweet buds everyone.

When rocked to rest on their mother's breast, As she dances about the sun.

I wield the flail of the lashing hail, And whiten the green plains under, And then again I dissolve it in rain,

And laugh as I pass in thunder.

Based on your reading of the poem answer the following questions:

- Who brings fresh showers for the thirsting flowers?
- Name the two sources of fresh showers?
- How do the clouds help the leaves?
- What does the hail whiten?
